

San Diego Metro Pigeon Club

Promoting the hobby through fellowship, education, and competition

The San Diego Metro Pigeon Club (SDMPC) is dedicated to promoting the pigeon hobby through fellowship, education, and competition.

The late Elmer Uhrich & Stanley Gentz founded the SDMPC in the early 60's. Their passion was to help youngsters enjoy a hobby that was safe, educational, and a lot of fun.

Meeting Location:

Linda Vista Recreation Center
7064 Levant Street
San Diego, CA 92113

Our programs are geared to both adults and juniors. We hold meetings throughout the year which act as a training ground for members to show birds, learn more about the hobby, and spend time with other pigeon fanciers.

Our goal is to help each member become as succesful as they desire in their hobby.

Come join in the fun. You won't find a more helpful and friendly group of pigeon fanciers than at the SDMPC.

There is a breed of pigeon right for everyone. Your choices are almost endless.

Thank you from the members of the SDMPC
